

7o'clock

7o'clock is time and space dedicated to pure experience free of explanations, artist statements, or analysis. From music and dance to literature and theater, every Sunday brings new artists and a new performance, as the clock strikes 7.

GUIDELINES & INFORMATION

1. 7o'clock is open to ALL art forms, including literature or visual art, as long as it can be worked into a performance. Be creative! Surprise us!
2. Performances should be between 30 minutes and 1 hour.
3. The performance begins precisely at 7pm.
4. Set-up time begins at 4pm and ends at 6:30pm, when the doors open. The performance can be as simple or complex as you choose, as long as set-up for the performance can be achieved within the 2 ½ hour window.
5. There is a $7 entry fee for non-members. The artist will earn up to $50 depending on the amount brought in at the door on the day of the performance.

If you have any questions, please email jr@mingstudios.org.
